

Wine Spectator

MAY 31, 2009

Top Value California Pinot Noirs

87 Points

Medium-bodied, with a delicate rose petal, mineral, sage and black cherry mix of flavors that are pure and complex.—$18

- James Laube

2007
SONOMA-MENDOCINO
COUNTIES
PINOT NOIR

2007 Angeline Sonoma-Mendocino Counties Pinot Noir

87 POINTS

“This two-county blend offers a good Pinot Noir at a fair price. It’s bone dry and silky, with crisp, cool climate acidity balancing nuanced cherry, red currant, cola and pomegranate flavors. Drink now.”

– S.H. , Wine Enthusiast Magazine, April 2009 issue

2007 Angeline Sonoma-Mendocino Counties Pinot Noir

“Silky on the palate with aromas and flavors of lively red berry fruit, baking spice, and a hint of cola; crisp, bright berry finish. Chicken breast.”

– Santé Magazine, March/April 2009 issue

2007 Angeline Sonoma-Mendocino Counties Pinot Noir

SILVER MEDAL WINNER

2009 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition